Dear Sir/Madam,

COUNCIL TAX - APPLICATION FOR PERSONS TO BE DISREGARDED FOR DISCOUNT PURPOSES –

2. a full-time student enrolled with a relevant educational establishment, undertaking a full time course of education which: -
 - a. subsists for at least 24 weeks in a calendar or academic year; and
 - b. the course requires a minimum period of study/tuition/work experience amounting to an average of 21 hours per week over the year (N.B. a course will not count as full-time if over the duration of the course, the combined periods of work experience exceed the combined periods study and tuition);
or
3. is under 20 years of age and undertaking a qualifying course of education at a relevant educational establishment which;
 - a. is any qualification no higher than A-level or equivalent

STUDENT NURSES – A person is classed as a Student Nurse if he/she is undertaking a course leading to registration under the Nurses, Midwives and Health Visitors Act (1997) at a College of Nursing and Midwifery or a College of Health.

REMINDER - A discount can only be awarded where ONE person remains liable after all other residents have been disregarded, e.g. in a three adult household, two have to qualify to be disregarded before a discount can be awarded. A house occupied wholly by full-time students may qualify for a full exemption.

Yours faithfully
