1(e) processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

In order for the processing of sensitive personal data to be lawful under the General Data Protection Regulations 2016, a valid condition from Article 9 must be identified, which is outlined below:

2(g) processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest, on the basis of Union or Member State law which shall be proportionate to the aim pursued, respect the essence of the right to data protection and provide for suitable and specific measures to safeguard the fundamental rights and the interests of the data subject.

The right to withdraw consent

You have the right to withdraw any representations made. Please contact the Service Area whose details are contained on the top of this document.

Who will have access to your information

Identity of Data Controller and Data Protection Officer

The Data Controller for your information is Caerphilly County Borough Council. The Data Protection Officer is:

Ms Joanne Jones
Corporate Information Governance Manager / Data Protection Officer
Email: dataprotection@caerphilly.gov.uk
Tel: 01443 864322

Other Data Controllers may also be responsible for your information, depending on the specific circumstances. Please contact the Service Area for further information.

Details of main users of your information

Staff within the Council's Development Management Team and Administrative Support staff will record your representation in the application database, including your contact details, for the purposes of acknowledging your representation, re-consulting with you if any amendments to the application are received and to advise you if any appeal is received relating to the application.

Your representation will not be published on-line but the whole planning file, including your representation, will be open to public inspection and copies of your representation may be made available to third parties on request.

Your name will not be relevant to the determination of the application but your address will be important to determine the significance of the impact of the planning proposal and may be referred to in the Committee/Delegated report relating to the application. This report is published on-line.

Details of any sharing of your information with other organisations

The Council will provide The Planning Inspectorate with a copy of your representation if an appeal is received relating to the planning application.

Details of any external data processors

Some historic planning applications are scanned to a document management system by an external company. The Council will ensure that this processing is compliant with data protection principles and relevant agreements are in place.

Requests for information

All recorded information held by Caerphilly County Borough Council may be subject to requests under the Freedom of Information Act 2000, Environmental Information Regulations 2004 and the Data Protection legislation.

If the information you provide is subject to such a request, where possible Caerphilly County Borough Council will consult with you on its release. If you object to the release of your information we will withhold your information if the relevant legislation allows.

How long will we retain your information

Details of retention period

How long Caerphilly County Borough Council retains information is determined through statutory requirements or best practice.

The Council holds records of planning applications from 1947 to the current date. Records are held in a variety of formats e.g. microfiche, electronic document management systems and paper format, the format depends on the age of the application.
